

Rapid Response

Limited information? We will draw up Prompt, a one-pager that summarizes the problem and issues a recommendation.

Need more on the economics? We will produce Support with comments of the assumptions and a view of the finances.

Need additional background? We will prepare a thorough Briefing that will address all the salient points of the issue.

Adding value to your decisions.

Rapid Response

How does it work?

1. Write us an email stating your request and include as much information about your issue as you can. Don't worry about Confidentiality - we take it extremely serious! All communication with us is immediately private, privileged and confidential as a result of our corporate policies and our terms and conditions.
2. Don't worry if part of the documentation is in different languages. We can read and process information in English, German, French, Spanish, Italian, Portuguese, Russian and Slovene. If it is something else still we can get additional people to look at it but it may take a little longer.
3. We will immediately review your request and let you know if we can work on it. Usually within about half an hour.
4. Together with our confirmation we will send you an invoice for the Rapid Response package you have elected. If this is the first assignment you give us we will give you a 25% discount.
5. In order to speed things up, we advise you to make payments by bank transfer to one of our bank accounts in AED, USD or EUR with Emirates NBD bank. The account numbers, bank details and payment instructions are on our invoice. On all payments, please make sure that bank fees and transfer charges are paid by yourself.
6. We will usually start working on an assignment immediately when we have agreed to take it on.
7. We will release the report to you as soon as it is ready, but definitely within our promised turn-around time from the date and time your payment has cleared. Our banks' reporting system is pretty good and we will know the exact date and time of your payment from the banks text message we receive about each account movement.
8. We will not release reports as long as payments have not been received or are incomplete.
